AT Mr. DE CHANTAL

Successful and Enjoyable Musicale Wed-nesday Evening.

One of the most successful musicales of the season at Mt. de Chantal was given Wednesday evening. The fol-lowing programme was rendered with a sustained excellence throughout:

Dodolinette was very neatly played by the Misses Margaret and Julia Sul-

Miss Kate Bruce's solo, Ave Maria, was sung with finish and great sweet-ness and feeling.

The Water Nymph, as played by Miss

Fiora Umberger, showed a sympathetic

In It Sogua, Miss Flora Pollack gave evidence of a sweet though not powereriul volce.

The Little Reverie, played by Miss Kittle O'Brien, was a gem. The young lady displayed much taste and feeling. Gifts is a beautiful song, and was dered with finish by Miss Emma Con-nelly.
Miss Graco Pollack played the Valse

Miss Grace Pollack played the Valse de Juliette with spirit, and showed marked improvement.

Owing to a severe cold, Miss Fannie Sullivan failed to do herself full justice in her song, though she sang it with much sweetness. Miss Genevieve Moran's Violin Obligato was beautifully played. Wagner's Spinning Song was rendered with great effect by Miss Emily Pollack. The young lady gives promise of becoming a brilliant planist.

The representatives of the elecution class gave delightful numbers, and did themselves credit in their rendition of their respective selections. While their respective selections. While gifted with considerable talent, each of gitted with considerable talent, each of these young ladies has had especial diffi-culties to overcome in the way of artistic expression. Their work might be measured by the average standard for private pupils of one term's stan ling, and as it results from class work only of that duration, is certainly most gratifying.

HAZLETT-TOPPING.

Mr. Samuel Hazlett and Miss Neille Top-ping Married Last Evening—The Mar-riage Was a Quiet Home-like Affair.

Last evening at the elegant home of the bride's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Tallman, at Letherwood, out the pike, the marriage of Mr. Samuel Hazlett, son of Dr. R. W. Hazlett, and the teller of the People's bank, lett, and the teller of the People's bank, to Miss Nellie Topping, a young lady noted for her beauty and accomplishments, took place in the presence of the relatives of the bride and groom and a few invited friends. The event had been looked forward to for some time, and would have been more public in its character but for the death of a relative. The ceremony took place at 0:30 p.m., in the large and handsome west parlor, which was beautifully decorpore, which was beautifully decorpore.

The ceremony took paces at oras partier, which was beautifully decorated for the occasion with cut flowers and palms arranged in a most tasteful manner, giving the room an appearance skin to what is the accepted mind pleture of paradise. The officiating minister was Rev. Dr. R. Rush Swope, of the St. Mathews' P. E. church. The bride's costume was of white satin, chiffon trimming, and a bonquet of littles of the valley. The groom was dressed in the conventional black. The attendants were Masters Henry and Wilbur Topping, pages, nephews of the bride, and Misses Mary and Sarah Hazlott, flower girls, nices of the groom.

The costumes of the guests were as follows:

Mrs. John Topping—Black crepon and pink satin.

and pink satin.
Mrs. A. P. Tallman-Pink satin and

A Des Moises woman who has been troubled with frequent colds, concluded to try an old remedy in a new way, and accordingly took a tablespoonful (four times the usual dose) of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy just before going to bed. The next morning she found that her cold had almost entirely disappeared. During the day she took a few does of the remedy (one teaspoonful at a time) and at night again took a tablespoonful before going to bed, and on the followbefore going to bed, and on the following morning awoke free from all symptoms of the cold. Since then she has, on several occasions, used this remedy in like manner, with the same good results, and is much clated over her dissuits, and is much clated over her discovery of so quick a way of curing a cold.
